TERMS & CONDITIONS AND IMPORTANT GUIDELINES

PLANNING YOUR ROYAL ROMANCE CEREMONY: A GENERAL OVERVIEW

Step One: Choose your cruise.

To book a Royal Romance Wedding, Vow Renewal, Proposal or Symbolic Wedding Package, the couple must first create a valid booking for the specific cruise on which they will sail. The cruise booking number is required to confirm a wedding date. Please review the "Destinations" section on page 9 to see which ports offer weddings. Packages vary by ship and sailing. Ceremony and enhancement prices vary by port, ship and season. A few ports are limited to symbolic ceremonies; ask your Royal Romance Specialist for details.

Step Two: Decide how large your wedding party will be and how many of them will sail with you.

Shipboard ceremonies

For shipboard ceremonies, a maximum of 150 guests are permitted. If the ceremony is taking place on the first day of sailing at the port of embarkation, up to 75 guests (out of your 150 total guest allotment) may be "non-sailing guests" that attend the ceremony but depart the ship before it sails.

Some ports only allow crew and passengers onboard cruise ships. At the ports that permit others to visit the ship, you must book a reception for the entire wedding party if 10 or more non-sailing guests attend the onboard ceremony. If the number of non-sailing wedding guests is fewer than 10, there is no reception requirement.

All non-sailing guests must present valid government issued photo identification, such as a driver's license or passport, when checking in at the pier security desk. Minors under 15 years old may present a certified copy of their birth certificate.

Shoreside ceremonies

For shoreside ceremonies, you may add guests but capacity may be limited, depending on the location. Additional transportation, entrance and site fees may apply. Contact a Royal Romance Specialist for details.

Step Three: Book your Royal Romance package.

General Rules

To book your Royal Romance Package, contact Royal Romance at 1-888-WED-RCCL (1-888-933-7225).

All package charges, license fees, taxes and surcharges must be paid in full at the time of booking. The deadline for changes or additions to your package is 30 days prior to your sailing. Prices, packages and policies are subject to change without notice, are non-negotiable and are subject to applicable sales tax. Package prices do not include cruise fare or other services and products. Agency checks are not accepted within 60 days prior to your sailing. All ceremonies and receptions are reserved based on availability and must be booked at least 45 days prior to the sail date of your cruise vacation.

Given the personal attention our Royal Romance Specialists dedicate to each wedding, we are limited to the number of ceremonies that can be coordinated on each ship and at each port of call. Your wedding date will be reserved as soon as full payment for your wedding package is received and upon receipt of a signed Royal Romance Wedding Agreement. Due to certain restrictions, some services may not be available.

Please be advised that in the event of strikes, lockouts, riots, certain weather conditions, change of itineraries, missed ports, mechanical difficulties or other unforeseen circumstances, Royal Caribbean International may at any time and without prior notice cancel, advance, postpone or deviate from any scheduled sailing or port of call. Royal Caribbean International and Royal Romance shall not be liable for any loss whatsoever incurred by reason of such cancellation, advancement, postponement or deviation. Please refer to Royal Caribbean International's brochures and cruise ticket contract for additional terms and conditions regarding your cruise vacation.

Weddings at Sea- The Royal Romance at Sea package must be paid in full at the time of booking and must be booked no later than 60 days prior to sailing. The deadline for making changes or additions to your Royal Romance at Sea package is 45 days prior to your sailing. Prices, packages and policies are subject to change without notice and are non-negotiable. Package prices do not include cruise fare or other services and products. Agency checks are not accepted within 60 days prior to your sailing.

Vow Renewals

Renewed Romance vow renewal ceremonies must be planned at least two weeks prior to sailing. We recommend booking as far in advance as possible to ensure availability. Couples must be married at least one year or longer and must provide their marriage license to Royal Romance prior to sailing. Vow renewals cannot be held on embarkation day or formal days/nights.

Proposals

The Royal Proposal package must be booked at least two weeks prior to sailing. We recommend booking as far in advance as possible to ensure availability. The Royal Proposal package is not available on the first or last day of the sailing or on formal days/nights. Floral upgrades are not available for this package.

Symbolic Weddings (Royal Devotions)

All Symbolic Wedding Package charges, taxes and surcharges must be paid in full at the time of booking. The deadline for booking or for making changes or additions to your Symbolic Wedding Package is 30 days prior to your sailing. Royal Devotions is not available on the first night of sailing or on formal days/nights.

Step Four: Decide what additional services and options you want for your ceremony.

Visit our website at www.RoyalCaribbean.com/RoyalRomance for a description of the standard elements of the particular package you selected. With respect to wedding packages, the service of a Royal Romance Specialist is included in your wedding package fee. Your Royal Romance Specialist assists with all the planning of your ceremony. For assistance on the day of your ceremony, the services of a Royal Romance Coordinator are included in the wedding package fee for parties of 25 guests and fewer. For every additional 25 guests, another Royal Romance Coordinator is required for a separate fee.

The website describes the various optional services and items that you can elect to add to your standard package.

Please be aware that Royal Romance provides all professional services such as photographers, entertainment, cakes, beverages, flowers, etc. No outside vendors/services are permitted.

All Royal Reception optional services and products, such as cakes, entertainment, beverage service and other enhancements, must be booked and paid for 45 days prior to sailing and are non-refundable. Enhancements such as beverage service and cakes (that are priced per person or by number of servings) must be purchased for the entire wedding party. For live reception entertainment, please provide your Royal Romance Specialist with a list of songs and personal requests such as bridal party announcements, special dances, bouquet toss, garter toss, toasts, etc.

Step Five: Plan to obtain your marriage license (wedding packages only).

For our wedding packages, the couple must obtain their marriage license prior to the wedding ceremony. A number of countries require the couple to appear in person at the courthouse or marriage license bureau. A list of marriage license requirements and fees will be provided to the couple once the wedding has been reserved and paid in full. In most ports of call, Royal Romance is able to assist in obtaining a marriage license for an additional fee, which must be paid in full at the time of booking. If Royal Romance assists in this process, documents must be submitted no later than 60 days prior to your sail date.

Step Six: Make your travel arrangements.

Royal Romance strongly recommends that couples who are getting married on the day of sailing arrive in port at least one day early to avoid flight interruptions or other travel and traffic delays on their wedding day. In the event of any delays, time constraints will dictate whether your wedding ceremony may be performed.

The couple and all other guests (whether sailing or not) are required to arrive early at the pier to begin the boarding process. Once local authorities approve boarding, wedding parties will then be escorted onto the ship. In advance of your wedding, you will be sent a form regarding information on your non-sailing guests. The completed form must be returned to Royal Romance no later than 30 days prior to sailing.

Checking-in on your wedding day

Priority check-in is provided for guests whose wedding ceremony is scheduled for the first day of sailing. A Royal Romance Coordinator will greet the wedding party at the security desk inside the port area and accompany them onboard. The Royal Romance Coordinator will escort the bridal couple to their stateroom. The bridal couple and guests may board as soon as local authorities clear the ship.

All sailing and non-sailing guests will receive priority check-in, provided they arrive early at the pier. Sailing guests must complete the paperwork in their ticket booklets before arriving at the pier. Since there is no food provided at the pier, Royal Romance advises that your wedding party guests have breakfast prior to arrival.

Non-sailing guests are required to stay within the designated areas confirmed for their event. They are asked to remain with their group and not venture into any onboard restaurants or dining venues not associated with the attended event.

Note: It is extremely important that members of the wedding party carry onboard all items by hand that are to be used in the ceremony. This includes the tuxedo, wedding dress, shoes, jewelry, etc. Security will allow only one small carry-on and one garment bag per person; all other luggage must be checked. Please note that checked luggage may not arrive to the stateroom until well after the ceremony.

Wedding Locations

Ceremony times and locations are assigned according to the requirements of each wedding party. Times and venues will be confirmed approximately two weeks prior to the sail date of your cruise vacation. Shoreside wedding locations do not include floral decorations or chairs; however, they can be purchased, subject to availability.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Can the Captain perform our ceremony and will it be legal?

The Captain can perform your ceremony once the ship is in international waters. Your marriage will be legally recognized in the Bahamas. Check with your local governmental authorities to see if they will also recognize your marriage.

How do I get a marriage license for a wedding at sea?

The Bahamian marriage license process is complex and requires at least 60 days for processing. Royal Romance will assist you with obtaining your license to ensure all legal requirements in the Bahamas are met. Additional licensing fees apply.

Can I get married any day or night of the sailing?

There are certain limitations as to when your wedding can take place. Royal Romance will make every effort to accommodate your preferred date but it is subject to the availability of the Captain or Staff Captain, his/her staff and the location of the ship.

How far in advance do I have to book my wedding at sea?

All weddings at sea must be booked at least 60 days prior to sailing but we strongly encourage you to book a few months in advance as possible.

May I bring guests to my wedding? If so, is there a limit?

For shipboard ceremonies, the maximum is 150 guests in total.

For shipboard ceremonies taking place on the first day of sailing at the port of embarkation, up to 75 of your guests (out of your 150 total guest allotment) may be “non-sailing guests” that attend the ceremony but depart the ship before it sets sail.

For shoreside ceremonies, you may add guests but capacity may be limited, depending on the location. Additional transportation, entrance and site fees may apply. Contact a Royal Romance Specialist for specifics.

When getting married on the first day of the sailing, why do I have to be at the port early?

For weddings held on the first day of the cruise, we allow wedding parties priority boarding. Because of this, we require that members of wedding parties arrive at the pier by 10:30 a.m. to avoid congestion. Note that boarding times may vary by port.

What happens if it rains on my wedding day?

If the weather is unsuitable for an outdoor ceremony, alternate arrangements may be made at the site or onboard the ship.

What should I wear? Are there any limitations?

Preferred attire is traditional, elegant or dressy-casual attire. Beachwear, beach sandals or shorts are not permitted in certain ports. Please contact your Royal Romance Specialist for more details.

What is the difference between a Royal Romance Specialist and a Royal Romance Coordinator?

A Royal Romance Specialist will help you with all of your pre-planning, your booking and any questions you may have before you board the ship. Please note that in the course of your planning, you may speak to multiple knowledgeable specialists; however, you may request to speak with one person specifically. On your wedding day, an onboard Royal Romance Coordinator will help guide you through the events and answer any questions you may have while on the ship.

What if a member of the wedding party or a guest has special needs?

Wheelchair, restroom and changing room accessibility vary by ship and by port, so please contact a Royal Romance Specialist for location specifications.

Who performs the ceremony?

In the United States, a Notary Public or a non-denominational officiant will preside. In non-U.S. ports, a non-denominational officiant will preside.

Can we have a religious or other type of ceremony?

That varies from port to port. Our Royal Romance Specialists will work with you to determine which port is best to accommodate your request.

What about same-sex ceremonies?

Due to legal restrictions, same-sex weddings are currently not available. Symbolic ceremonies, vow renewals and proposals may be performed for same-sex couples.

Is there an additional fee for Saturdays, Sundays or holidays?

Additional fees will apply on some holidays and weekends. Please contact your Royal Romance Specialist for complete details.

Is transportation included with my package?

In certain shoreside packages, transportation is provided for the bridal couple only. Transportation for the wedding party is not included in the package, but can usually be arranged for embarkation day weddings and other guests for an additional fee.

Is music provided at the ceremony?

A portable CD player will be provided for your shipboard ceremony. Traditional wedding music is provided, or you may bring your own CDs. Music is not provided for weddings held shoreside, but can be arranged.
